Details

In view of Covid 19 pandemic and extension of lockdown, we have to resort to alternate modes of instruction and teacher training. We need to equip ourselves to design and use Virtual Learning Environments to resume our instructional programmes and works for student-teachers.

This faculty training programme is specifically designed for teacher educators and free of cost. Dr. Bindu R. L., Professor and Head of the Department, University of Kerala will be giving an inaugural talk. E-certificate will be sent to participants attending all the sessions. Its follow up programme and support will be provided.
